on Monday - February 6th*

on the hill, (Utah State Capitol) from 7:00-2:00 for:

American Indian Caucus Day!

Meet - Learn - Voice- Extra Credit!!

The Facts:

- Nebo Title VI has been invited to participate in the American Indian Caucus Day on February 6th.
- We will meet at Cherry Creek Elementary or Larsen at 7:00 a.m. and arrive back between 1:30 and 2:00.
- Please bring a lunch or money to eat at the Capitol cafeteria. Wear comfortable shoes.
- A permission slip must be signed by your parents (Form on the back of this page.)

What Will We Do?:

- Meet Native American Leaders from each tribe in Utah. All Native leaders will be there.
- Some of the students will be sharing a song at the caucus as requested by the Division of Indian Affairs.
- We will sit in on debates of bills in the House of Representative chambers. (3 pertaining to Natives in Utah).
- We will have the opportunity to meet our local legislators and share with them letters stating our opinions on issues facing Native Americans in the state such as Bears Ears, mining, education etc. (your choice).
- Have a wonderful day of learning. If you are interested in receiving extra credit for a class, you need to contact your teacher and Brenda Beyer to try to work out a plan. This is a great opportunity! Do it!

I want to go! What do I need to do?

1. Give the permission slip to your parents, have them sign it, talk with your teachers about some extra credit.
2. Call Brenda Beyer 801-592-5761 or Eileen Quintana 801-361-9030 to put your name on the list by Thursday!
3. Let your teachers know you will be going. Those on the bus will be excused that morning.
4. Arrive at Cherry Creek Elementary or Larsen Elementary on Monday, February 6th at 7:00 with a lunch.
